Subject: Request for Extension of Time to Repond

Mr. Adamchak and Mr. Tollett,

This concerns: (1) Hodges Media, LLC's (Hodges) February 12, 2019, letter, captioned "VIA EMAIL" and transmitted by email, requesting an extension (Extension Request) until April 8, 2019, to respond to the Inference Complaint (Complaint) submitted by 3B Properties, Inc.; (2) 3B's "Motion to Deny Extension of Time" (Motion) filed February 27, 2019, opposing the Extension Request and amending the Complaint "to include the complaint of Stephen Smith, which was deemed incomplete in our filing, to correct the phone number on the complaint of Brenda Farney, and to add the complaint of Darrell Roddy . . ."; and (3) Hodges' "Opposition to Motion to Deny" (Opposition) filed February 28, 2019, requesting dismissal of 3B's Motion and "grant [of] its request for extension through April 8, 2019 to respond completely and accurately to 3B Properties' interference complaint – including those filed with its Motion."

With respect to the Extension Request, in order for us to consider such request or any other submission, it must be filed electronically through the Commission's CDBS Electronic Filing System or delivered to the Commission's Office of the Secretary (an original and one copy along with a cover letter). We have checked the Commission's files and data bases, and we have no record that the Extension Request was properly filed as described above.

Regarding 3B's Motion and Hodges' Opposition, to the extent they address the Extension Request we find them to be moot because said request is not before us.

Concerning the listener complainants, as noted in footnote 35 of the Bureau's letter, dated February 5, 2019, "[T]he obligation to resolve interference complaints is ongoing. Specifically, should any complaints be filed in the future, Licensee must resolve or address those complaints within 30 days of receipt." Accordingly, Hodges has 30 days from February 27, 2019, to address the listener complaints.

Sincerely,

Jim Bradshaw
